Bishop Waitaker on Saturday sailed for England to attend a grand conference of Bishops, Archbishops and other high dignitaries of the Episcopal Church in England. This will be his first trip to the Old World. He is said to have asserted that a trip to Nevada would have been one much more agreeable to him.

A. BERGMAN.

How Our Next Congressman was Received on the Comstock.

VIRGINIA CITY, June 29

To THE EDITOR OF THE APPEAL:—I wish to correct a statement made in the Chronicle about Mr. Bartine's reception at the ratification meeting held in Virginia City.

It gave the idea that Mr. Bartine met with a cold reception at the hands of the Comstock people.

This is not so. Mr. Bartine received an ovation at the Opera House, and his speech was continually interrupted with applause.

On one occasion the audience rose to its feet and cheered.

I never saw a speaker of either party better received in Virginia City, and I have resided here nearly fifteen years.

When he spoke of Cleveland's attitude on the silver question and showed how little Nevada had to expect of him, and how much it needed Harrison and Protection, the silver miners in the audience led the applause, and showed that irrespective of party they understood the full import of the present struggle.

Mr. Bartine not only had a warm reception here, but he made an impression here which will make itself felt at the polls on election day.

You can put it down Mr. APPEAL man that Bartine will carry the county by a good round majority. We like his kind of man up here.

ONE OF THE AUDIENCE.

MRS. BOWERS.

Her Splendid Rendition of Elizabeth.

The following is an extract from a description in the Cincinnati Commercial of Mrs. Bowers as "Elizabeth."

It was in the third act, however, that Mrs. Bowers fairly electrified the audience. From the moment, when with a gesture of the most supreme contempt and scorn, she cried to Essex: "You speak like a child, I treat you like a child," and smote him on the cheek until she is driven to the wildest frenzy by Essex's bitter reproaches, she held the audience spellbound. When the curtain fell the applause knew no bounds, nor would the audience be satisfied until the curtain had been raised twice. Again in the fourth act, where the proud Elizabeth struggles between Scylla and Charybdis so to speak, Mrs. Bowers' wonderful power was brought out in strong relief, and when the news of the death of Essex was announced and the queen, after having in a burst of fury, ordered every one from the apartment, sank on her knees broken hearted and crushed, the actress captured the hearts of all.

The Babies Cry For It. And the old folks laugh when they find that the pleasant California liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs, is more easily taken and more beneficial in its action than bitter, nauseous medicines. It strengthens the Liver, Kidneys, Stomach, and Bowels, while it arouses them to a healthy activity. For sale by Geo. C. Thaxter, Agent.

A Nuisance.

A few days ago the APPEAL remarked that if 50 people were called on to name the meanest man in town 49 would guess the same man.

Since then about 100 people have called to tell us how they guessed it. All named the same man. We hope people will quit calling us the thing has simmered down to a nuisance.

Store to Rent.

Sweeny's building is now nearly finished. Cagwin and Noteware have taken the corner store and the one adjoining is for rent.

Apply to John Sweeny or Cagwin and Noteware.

The location is very desirable.

—Under the Cleveland administration, more Chinese have landed on the shores of America than ever before.

Yet the Democratic papers try to convince intelligent people that Harrison's election will be a pro-Chinese victory.

If ever the Mongolians had a friend in high place, it was Grover Cleveland.

He Tells of Surprises in Store.

Thomas Fitch, Esq., one of the California delegates to the Republican National Convention, was in Reno a few days ago. In a brief interview with a Gazette reporter Mr. Fitch expressed himself well satisfied with the selection of Harrison and Morton by the Convention and says that it makes a very strong ticket and one that is sure of election. He says further that the campaign will develop some surprises that will aid in defeating the Democratic nominees, and that for the first time we can confidently expect a break up in the vote of the Solid South. West Virginia can be counted on for the Republican cause, and the doubtful Northern States are secured by the selection of Harrison and Morton.

Queer, Isn't It?

The more one examines the record of the California delegation the more one is disposed to tax them with an absolute lack of common sense. They pushed Estee to the fore as the Chairman of the Convention and he was elected.

Estee is an old chronic bolter from his party. In the Grant and Greeley campaign he deserted his party and stumped the State for Greeley. He also let his party a second time, and when Booth ran he went with the Dolly Vardens.

He has run for office a number of times, and has always been snowed under by heavy majorities.

The idea of pushing such a man for the Chairmanship of a National Convention was decidedly queer, but it was in keeping with the antics of the California delegation all through.

G. C. WHITE, P. M.

Money Swapped for Title.

Mrs. Lillie Warren Hammsley a wealthy and beautiful lady of New York, has married the Duke of Marlborough.

It is claimed that she has no affection for the Duke, but wanted the title of Duchess.

It is hard to see how the empty title of Duchess can be any additional adornment to an American woman who has wealth, brains and beauty.

When she only has wealth and beauty however, there is some excuse. Women with all three accomplishments never run after English Dukes.

Put up or Shut Up.

As the Virginia Chronicle seems to be aching for a bet, the APPEAL submits the following proposition: There is $45,00 on deposit with this office to be bet as follows:

A Republican in this city will name 15 States and bet one hundred on each one that it goes for Harrison.

He will also name 15 more and bet $200 on each one that it goes for Harrison.

He bets $45,00 on 30 States.

Does the Chronicle want any portion of this bet.

Man and money can be found at this office in an hour's notice.

A Democratic View.

The New York Sun the leading Democratic paper in the country is sobering the Democrats as follows: The Republican ticket of 1888 has many points of resemblance to the Republican ticket of 1880, and as all Democrats will remember the latter event about the best thing the Democrats of the doubtful States can do now is to cease contemplating the weakness of the ticket which their opponents have put up and to develop what strength and stability appertains to their own.
